

Adam Drew, KC

WORK EXPERIENCE

Alberta Crown Prosecution Service, Calgary — Prosecutor / Team Lead / Deputy Chief Prosecutor, Education

JULY, 2010 - PRESENT

Since 2010, I have prosecuted criminal matters in Calgary across Docket, Domestic, Litigation, Early Case Resolution, Specialized Courts, and Calgary Indigenous Court portfolios. My experience includes serious and complex litigation, homicide files, Charter applications, jury addresses, complex sentencing, charge advice, and unreasonable-delay coordination. I have served as Team Lead in multiple units, mentoring junior prosecutors and assisting senior management. From 2022 to 2023, I served as Deputy Chief Prosecutor, Education, leading prosecutor and articling student education. Since the launch of Calgary Indigenous Court, I have represented the Crown, contributed to stakeholder and practice note work, and presented on related subjects.

Private Practice, Calgary — Barrister and Solicitor

OCTOBER, 2007 - JULY, 2010

Provided legal advice and services in a variety of areas, including Criminal Defence, Civil Litigation, Wills and Estates, and Real Estate Conveyancing.

RECENT PROFESSIONAL EDUCATIONAL ROLES

Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police Indigenous Policing Summit — Presenter

SEPTEMBER, 2026

Co-presented on Calgary Indigenous Court as a success story with respect to Indigenous People in the Criminal Justice System.

Student Legal Assistance Presentation on Calgary Indigenous Court — Presenter

FEBRUARY, 2026

Advised Student Legal Assistance team leaders on Calgary Indigenous Court and Indigenous Justice principles.

University of Calgary Faculty of Law Criminal Procedure: Specialized Courts — Presenter

FEBRUARY, 2023

Presented to students regarding the operation of specialized courts in Alberta.

SELECTED MEMBERSHIPS

Law Society of Alberta

Board member/Bencher and member of the Lawyer Competence and Ethics committee. Previous member of the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion committee (since dissolved).

Member since October, 2007, Bencher since February 2023.

Indigenous Justice Centre Society

Board Member since April, 2023

EDUCATION

University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario — Juris Doctor

SEPTEMBER, 2003 - APRIL, 2006

University of Lethbridge, Lethbridge, Alberta — Bachelor of Arts, Political Science

SEPTEMBER, 1999 - MAY, 2003